OUR INHERENT FREEDOMS

TO LIVE TO LOVE TO LAUGH

The freedom about living is that
You do it all the time and
Never think about it until
You're going to lose it or
Until you find something to
Make it
Richer.

The freedom about love is that
It's in you all the time but
Now and then it blows up in you
Like a fire or
Grows like a baby flower
And makes things sweeter just by Growing and Hurting.

The freedom about laughter is that
It's bubbling all the time and
Bursts over like a pop bottle
Fizzing and means nothing and
Everything and gives your heart
A chance to be
Very much Nearer
To God.

KATHY EVERITT, '63

DEDICATION

We, the "Marian" staff of 1963, wish to dedicate this yearbook to you, our parents, who have sacrificed so much to give us the very best. In the past four years we have received a valuable, well-rounded education which has molded our characters and alerted us to a sense of responsibility. We are deeply grateful to you for the opportunity to take advantage of this vast wisdom brought by the years of experience and Divine Guidance in the teaching mission of the Church.

As we graduate from Mt. St. Mary's and take our first steps into the world, we are somewhat fearful, contemplating the meaning and duties of womanhood. It is our prayer that we may always be witnesses in our lives of the principles which you have set before us. In this dedication we offer our humble thanks for your undying generosity and unselfish assistance.

May God bless you always!

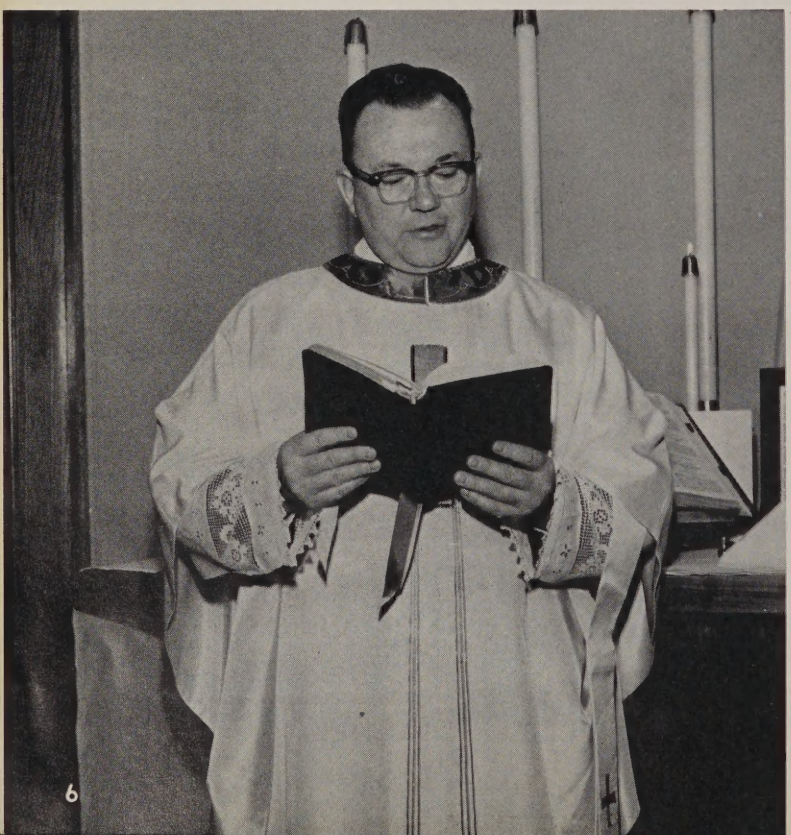
THE MOST REVEREND LORAS T. LANE,
D.D., J.C.D.
Bishop of Rockford Diocese



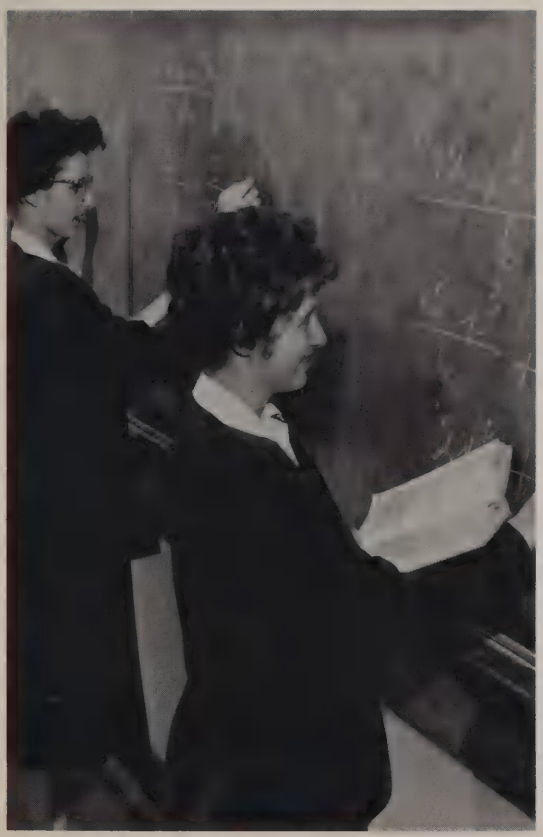
"Wherefore also we pray always for you that our God would make you worthy of His vocation, and fulfill all the good pleasure of His goodness and the work of faith in power."

St. Paul

FATHER JAMES A. MOLLOY
Chaplain and Religion Instructor

in the Dominican Tradition

. . . teaching means the giving of the fruits of contemplation. Prayer, therefore, is the Sisters's first work, wherein she is "at home" with God and receives what He would have her dispense to His children.



Sister Rita Marie's book might be an American or Modern History, or one for a French class.

Sister Agnes Patrice, Principal, with Sister Dionysius and Sister Devota, who teaches Social Problems.

On the Lighter Side

Browsing in this corner are Sr. Michaeleen Marie, librarian, and teacher of Religion II and Modern History; Sr. Helen Patrick; and Sr. Ann Gerard of the Business Office, Practical Math, and Latin classes.

Esteemed

Miss Marge Biersach, Miss Caryl Eddy, and Dr. Marion Sandalls.

. . . by all for their fine contributions to the educational program are Miss Marge Biersach, who teaches Speech and Dramatics; Miss Caryl Eddy, who teaches English and is in charge of the Physical Education classes; Dr. Marion Sandalls, Director of Guidance and Counseling; and Mr. Robert Myers, teacher of stringed instruments and orchestra conductor.

Mr. Robert Myers

STUDENT COUNCIL . . . Nucleus of School Life

Maintaining order between classes, the hall guard, Char. Lobianco, is essential to daily routine.

Vicki Dolezal and Joanne Dallesasse prepare for the first Student Council assembly.

Student Government Day

Mary Heisten receives an admit slip from Vicki, Student Council President, acting principal, while K. Everitt, Secretary, V. Leonardi, Treasurer, J. Dallesasse, Vice-President, and M. Mahan, Publicity Chairman, assume other duties in the office.

Preparing to receive the Bread of Life and to assist more intimately in the Holy Sacrifice are these Sodalists: Kathy McDonald, Prefect; Rita Piccinini, Secretary-Treasurer; and Kathy Schweihs, Vice-Prefect.

SODALITY

D. Romano, C. Fiore and K. Shakes sound an alert to the Catholic Press.

Reports were made enthusiastically by these S.S.C.A. delegates who had "time for Christ" during summer vacation.

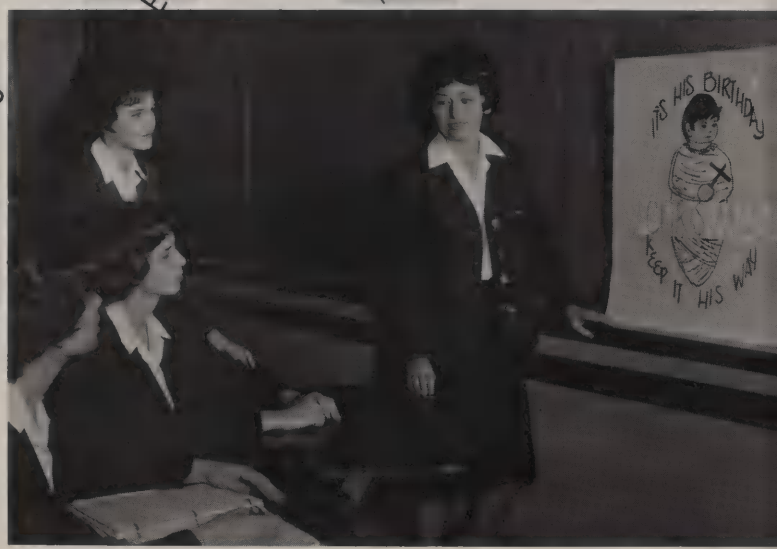
"Neither rain nor snow nor sleet" can stay these YCSers from teaching catechism at St. Patrick's.

Gift Committee prepares to share Halloween fun with the less fortunate.

Kathy Everitt explains the 1963 Handbook to interested members.

YCS

Study days are an integral part of the YCS year.



Officers discuss merits of the winning Christmas poster: J. Jackman, Vice-President; S. Johnson, Secretary; M. Burke, Treasurer; and P. Hall, President.

As its name implies, the Marian Honor Society is an elective group of the Student Body.

Pamela Hall, newly elected to the National Honor Society, pledges to uphold the high standards of Scholarship, Character, Leadership and Service.

N.H.S. officers preside at Induction Ceremony: Barbara Essig, Vice-President; Vicki Dolezal, President; Kathy Everitt, Secretary-Treasurer.

Offering their voices to Divine service, Schola members know their lives are enriched immeasurably.

L. Shearer, J. Tybor, S. Johnson, and S. Haney of the Library Club—so faithful!

Many a step these Junior R.N.'s retrace in serving the sick.

— TO LOVE

LOVE IS AS POIGNANT,

CREATIVE

AND FULL OF HOPE AS

A MOTHER

OR SPRING

OR YOUTH . . .

OR LAUGHTER.

To Know God Is to Love Him

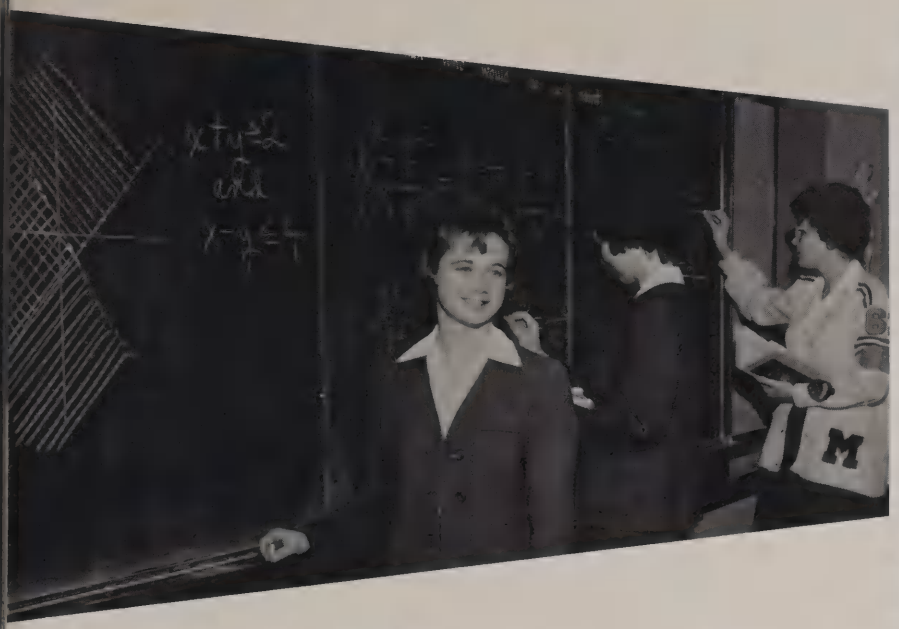
Seniors K. McDonald, C. Lobianco, and K. Everitt rehearse a sick call.

The three epochs of the Church: in antiquity, the Middle Ages, and modern times, are portrayed by Y. Oester, J. Dallesasse, A. Przybylo, S. Haney, and V. Leonardi.

These Freshmen are finding the answer to their quest in St. Thomas' Summa.

" . . . For the success of the Ecumenical Council" Sophomores not only pray, but extend their knowledge, relating the present to previous Councils.

Youth Loves to Reason



K. Driessen has successfully graphed the intersection of two inequalities, while L. Sprunger and B. Essig reason through other problems in Algebra II.

S. DeRosia, C. Downer, and Mary Jo Jackman watch while P. Rowbottom plots a graph in Algebra I.

C. Scannell would like to point out to Practical Math students the application of a Social Security tax withholding table.

M. Pagnucci is determined to prove that AD=DB in Geometry. G. Morris and K. Renberg have already moved on to another challenge.

Parlez vous Français?

–Non

Ego loquor Latine!

Second year Latin students Barb Porter, Jane De Rosia, and Sheila Antill find "Life" helpful in their Mythology study.

The language lab can correct those pesky pronounciation difficulties, discover French II students Vicki Dolezal, Pam Hall and Tamara Santos.

"Quelle heure est-il?" Beth Sheridan finds out if her fellow French I classmates know their fundamentals.

Ginny Leonardi seems to be alerting the
Latin III class to some serious dilemma . . . "O tempora, O mores!"

Love in Creation

Joyce Foley and Renee Ferree record the titration of acids.

J. DeRosia, M. Cunningham, C. Fiore, A. Choutka, and K. Shakes study life "in the shell," an incubator project in Biology.

In Earth Science, prisms fascinate J. Peot, K. Wangler, P. Doyle, K. Bingham and P. Magee.

Loretta Fiore typifies the English skills of communication.

" . . . " chant witches Ann Deneen, Hilda Alberty, and Araceli Herrero as they interpret Shakespeare's Macbeth.

Freshmen review the rudiments of grammar and composition.

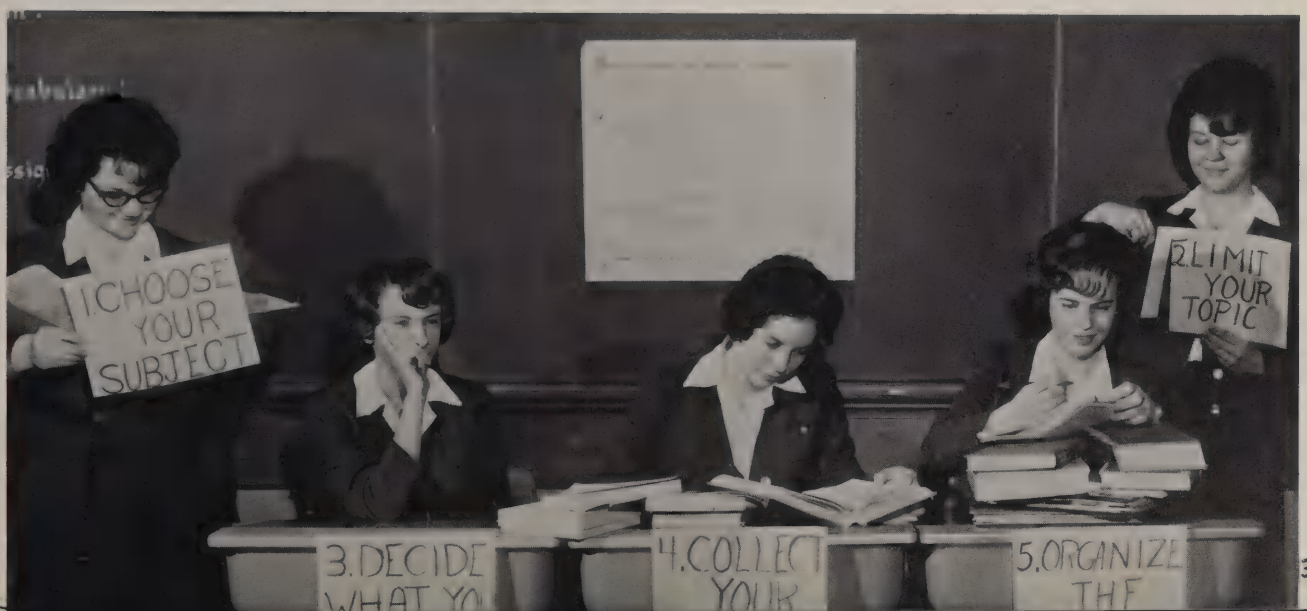
Augmenting vocabulary as a key to future success, K. Lochmandy, S. Buchner, R. Rudd, and L. Dietz work with R. Szczepaniak.

Reflecting Man's Loves

"One can go back there again . . . into the living. I feel it. I know it," pleads J. Burke in the "Our Town" studied by the Drama Class.

Sophomores Mary Ann Olson, Julie Cannell, Linda Janus, Linda Acciari, Eileen Colfer, and Cindy Essig prepare the final copy of their contributions to the "Voice of Youth" in the Chicago Tribune.

How to prepare a better theme? Kathy Baumann, Kathy Schweihs, Rita Raible, Elaine Albert, and Dianne Spanski illustrate the technique.



The Cecilian Choristers avail themselves of a broad repertoire of music literature—a cappella and accompanied.

The reedy character of the woodwinds binds the harmony of the orchestral choirs.

Though few have studied more than two years, the members of the String Section always add the "professional" sound to concerts.

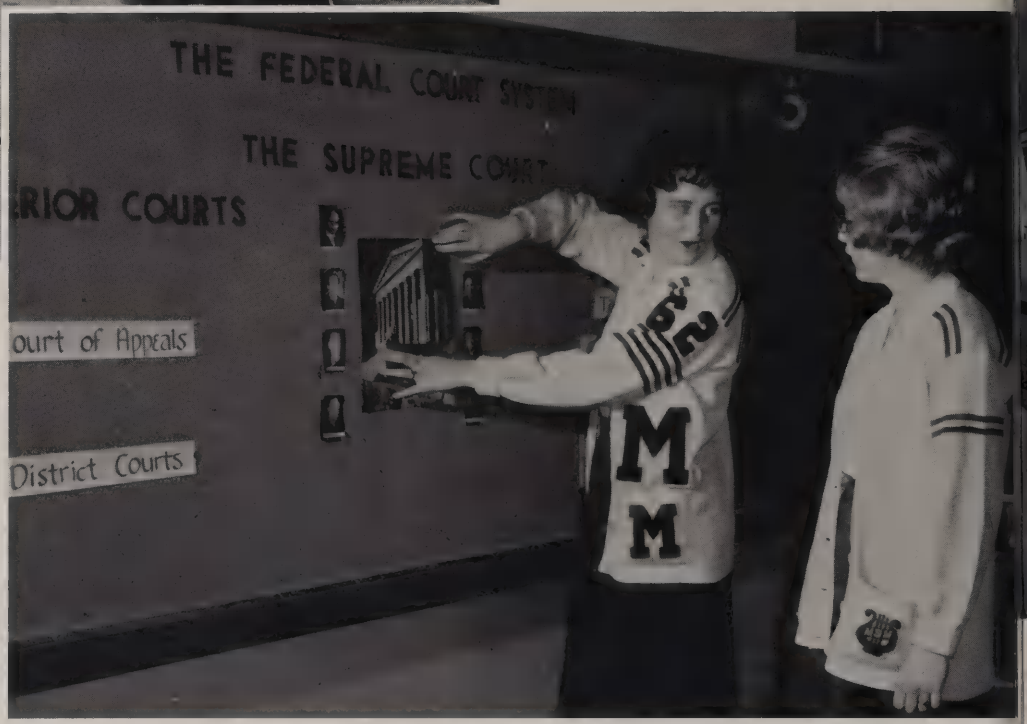
MUSIC

The brass and percussion section gives that necessary quality for completion.

Music Director, Sister M. Philomena, and accompanist Pamela Hall work together to insure the beauty of the choral and orchestral concerts.

The Past Is Present

Mary Fetter, Mary Ellen Hoelscher and Linda Iding study Russian frontiers.



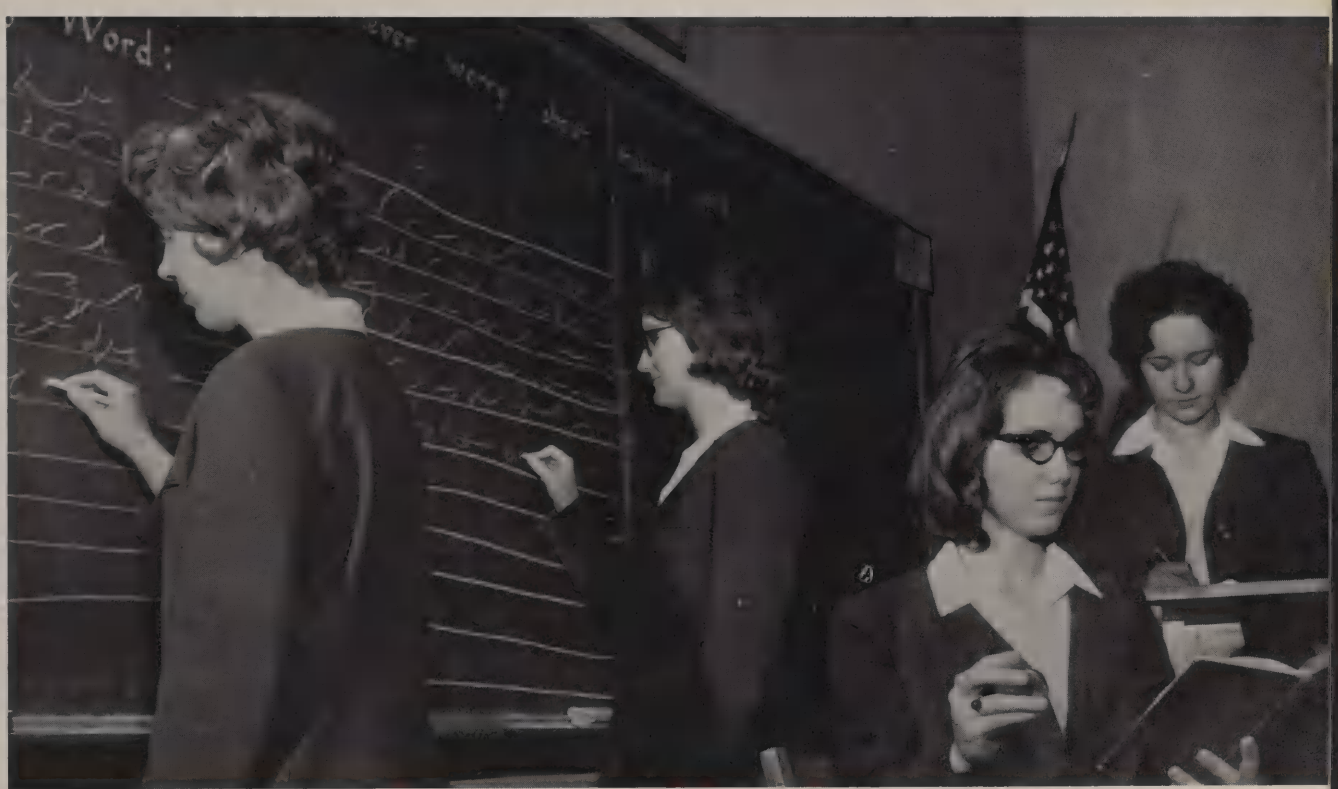
In the interest of their Social Problems class, Jonell Linskey and Vicki Dolezal make final adjustments for display of the Federal Court System.

Learning the history of Western Civilization are J. Tullis, K. Yender, M. Momot, and D. Driver.

American History students benefit from Mr. Dickey and his Airborne TV class.

Tomorrow's Secretaries–Today

In the daily routine of "making the whole world her office," are Ann Deneen, Beth Sheridan, Hilda Alberty, Tamara Santos, and Teresa Sanchez.



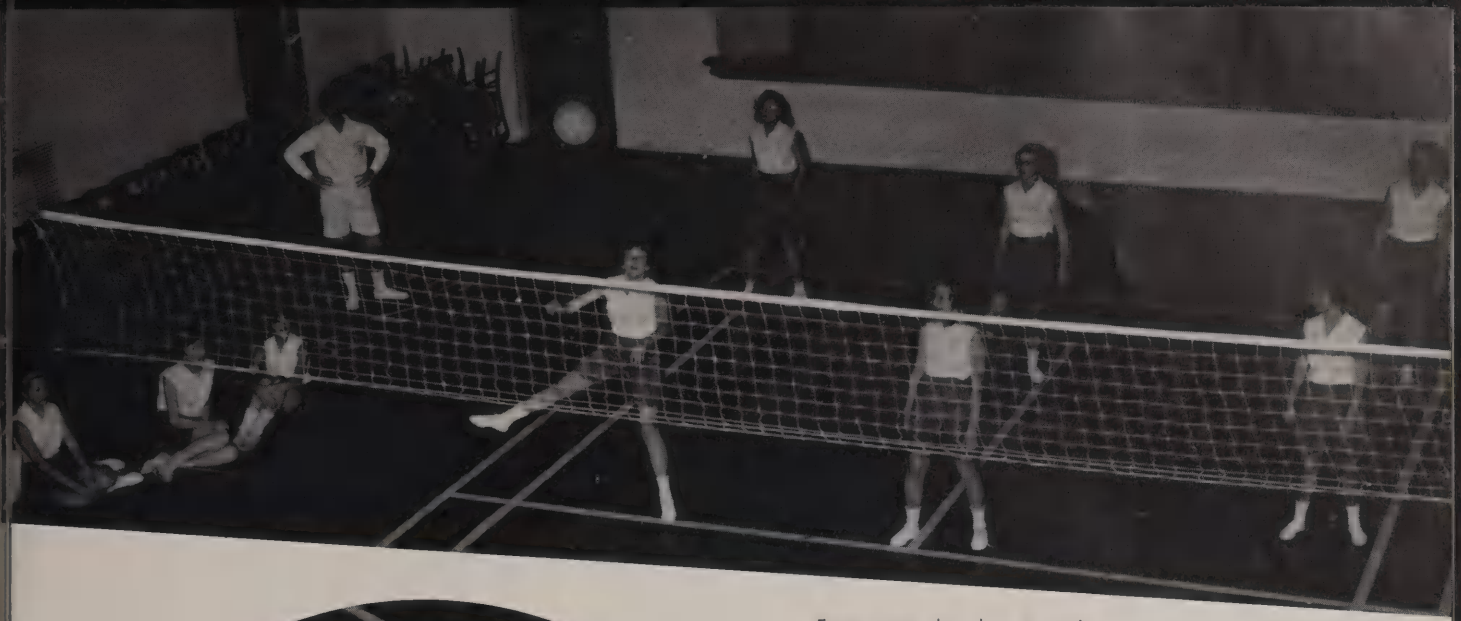
K. Yender, K. Gillis, J. Dehner, and H. Pranckunas time their speed in Shorthand II.

Homemaking Woman's First Love

Get on your mark, get set, sew! These clothing students are doing just that in preparation for the operetta.

Learning the culinary arts are Lucretia Cassanovas and Nacha Santos as they prepare to mix a cake.

Anne Rutili plays hostess role to her guests Theodora Karnegis, Joan Tullis, and Susan Heisten.



Every gym class has a rousing season of volleyball!

For a Better Self

Into the basket! Basketball squad games are always popular.

Archery is another phase of the Physical Education program and it seems to be fun.

LAUGHTER IS AS ALIVE, ARTLESS, AND FULL OF GRACE AS . . .

OR
A LOVING SMILE
OR YOUTH
OR HEAVEN . . .

Loyal in Love

May the blessed ring be a symbol of inner renewal, a dedication to the fulfillment of God's designs for His children.

To the Blessed Mother, Senior officers Joyce Foley, Barbara Essig, Marilyn Oslac, Vicki Dolezal, and Pat Costello express earnest prayers to imitate her fidelity in virtue.

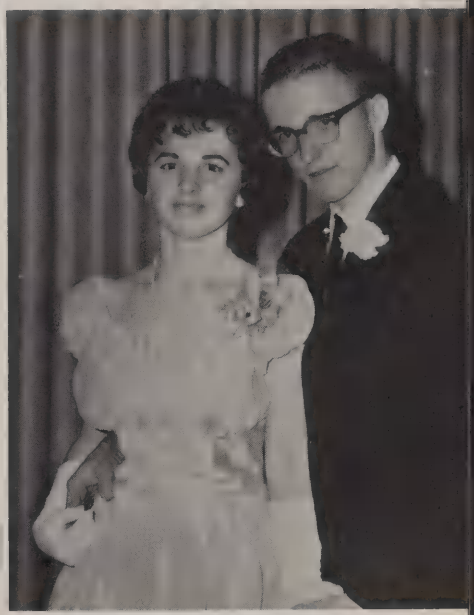
Keynote of Father Regan's address was an "invitation to greatness," to be "witnesses of Christ."

Hours to Remember

Beth Sheridan and escort

Queen Marilyn Oslac with her attendants, Linda Janus and Mary Reinhardt.

Proudly Mr. Oslac crowns his daughter.



G.A.A. President, Nancy Unbdenstock, and her escort.

The Grand March swings gaily into line.

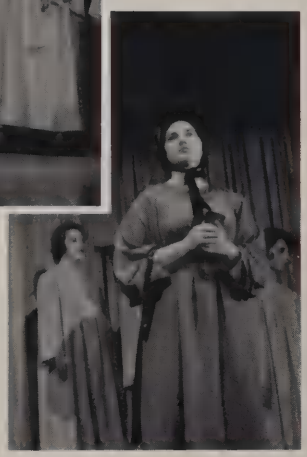
"At the Feet of the Madonna"

"I kneel to ask a favor"

"Queen, they call you Mary."

" . . . We need you, Mother Mary!"

"O, Mary, I'm so afraid!"



"I should ask . . . only that you stand with me."

Their finest gifts they bring.

In the Spirit of St. Nick

Smiles reflect the achievement of 1st, 2nd and 3rd place won by Judith Wragg, Kathy Palmer, and Mary Heisten with their gifts for Mt. St. Joseph's.

It was fun for all at the Student Council Christmas party.

Vicki Dolezal was Santa's helper in the distribution of gifts.

OPERATION

Bazaar

Attraction in Santa's Workshop—this prize Dalmation captivated many, especially Ann Deneen, Beth Sheridan, and Marrilee Dillon.

Who could refuse these smiles, when Mary Reinhart and Jeanne Jackman try to sell the winning ticket for "Bosco the Bear."

This dressy booth tells that the Alumnae, too, have been faithful with their help and support.

No words can thank our wonderful parents who sponsor this project annually as an auxiliary benefit.

OPERATION . . .

"Fitness"

Tramp . . . Tramp . . . Tramp . . .

The Egyptians couldn't top this one.

Kaye Lochmandy soared into the air as she performed on the trampoline with great ease.

With rhythm and grace and an occasional thump, the "bell" drill "tolled" a story of strength.

The Fortune Teller

The chorus gives Ladislaus the respect due a Captain of the Hussars.

"Watch this, it's from the Em'rald Isle."

With a merry shout, "Juche!" the curtain closes on the successful '63 "Fortune Teller."

And the secret of success—a snappy stage crew! Here are C. Turner and Nancy Umbdenstock at the curtain.

Fresco convincingly enumerates the many charms of impostor Musette to the prospective bridegroom, Count Berezowski.

. . . "the prospect drove me to suicide. I threw myself into the river before writing this."

"She's the object of attentions quite ecstatic."

The happy couples seem to agree, "There's no charm like two laughing blue eyes."

No precious bauble can be safe from the taking ways of these gypsies.

Bizarre and Benevolent

"Tick-tock. Here comes the croc," Kathy Shakes, winner of 1st place in the costume parade of the Y.C.S. Mardi Gras.

Shouts and hands reach up to grasp some treasures from "Miss Pinata's" shower of gifts.

Jonell Linskey primes the homeroom mission chairmen Nancy Farrell, Bonnie Ga-Mache, Helen Pranckunas, and Susan Heisten, to the missions' financial needs.

Lest We Forget

Mr. Barry, Ray, and Tony—busy as usual!

Mary—always ready with a helping hand.

Miss Schultz—so quietly indispensable.

Margaret, Beulah, Mrs. Hanson, Carol and Gene—kind and ready for the hungry horde.

OPERATION . . . Live, Love, and Laugh

This is the Marian staff working behind the scenes and between the lines of these pages.

The spirits of editor, Monica Mahan, and co-editor, Jonell Linskey, remain undaunted despite the rigors of publication and deadlines.

The "Marian" Staff wishes to express appreciation to all who made this yearbook possible. Without the co-operation of the Faculty and Student Body, this publication would never have been a reality. Much gratitude is owing also to Mr. Dwight B. Parker, Jr., of the Taylor Publishing Company, as well as to Mr. Norbert Dompke and all at Root Studio.

The efforts, patience, and encouragement of all were a sure support to the staff. Sincere thanks to all for helping to make the "Marian" a success.

Mary,

Do you remember Mr. Cary
White shirts will like a chicken
and whose face kind of hairy?
He was a turkey merry
You'll always remind me of a canary
With your sweet Mary.
God Luck
